The Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics will come through High Point on May 26, 2011. The run will start at about 9:30 am on the 26th. The torch will be picked up on W. Main and new US 311 where the torch will handed off to officers from the Guilford County Sheriff's Office. High Point Police Officers have raised over $10,000 for Special Olympics so far this year! Please come out and support Special Olympics North Carolina!

The Law Enforcement Torch Run is the largest grass-roots fundraiser and public awareness vehicle for Special Olympics in the world. More than 85,000 law enforcement officers in all 50 states, all Canadian provinces, and 35 countries carry the "Flame of Hope" through the streets for their local, state, or national Special Olympics Games.

Law Enforcement officers have long been good friends to Special Olympics. They have emerged as champions of Special Olympics athletes everywhere. They have encouraged our athletes to aspire to their highest potential and compete against their personal best. They have helped to make many dreams come true, often against seemingly insurmountable odds.

The International Association of Chiefs of Police is the founding Law Enforcement organization for the Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics.
